The Fee Waiver and Book Loan Program is available to eligible Running Start (RS) students for the assistance with textbooks and waiver of student-voted fees during participation in RS. Students can document eligibility by any of the following methods. Check the box next to the eligibility method that applies to you.

- I have received notification that I am eligible for the Free and Reduced Meals Program in my school district within the last 5 years. Submit school district verification of free or reduced lunch eligibility.
- I am currently receiving public assistance from a state or federal program. Attach a copy of evidence. Examples include a Medical Identification Card (medical coupon or Basic Health Plan), TANF benefits statement, Basic Food statement, HUD Housing Award Letter, WIC Coupon, DSHS approval letter (your name must appear on the documentation provided). Contact the RS office if you have something not on the list for us to consider.
- I am a Foster Youth or have McKinney-Vento status. Provide a signed statement from your caseworker or high school counselor as documentation. Documentation must be on letterhead.
- I am a College Bound Scholarship student. Provide certificate of approval.
- My family income is less than 200% of the 2022 Annual Federal Poverty Level published in the Federal Register and noted below. Provide a copy of the first two pages of parent's/guardian's most recent tax return, e.g. IRS 1040 (your name must appear on the documentation provided).
